"The purpose of Phi Theta Kappa shall be to recognize and encourage scholarship among two-year college students. To achieve this purpose, Phi Theta Kappa shall provide opportunity for the development of leadership and service, for an intellectual climate for exchange of ideas and ideals, for lively fellowship for scholars, and for stimulation of interest in continuing academic excellence."

Each year, Phi Theta Kappa chooses an honors study topic, which all of their topics embrace. This year, the topic was Rights, Privileges and Responsibilities: An Indelicate Balance. The organization kept busy by helping with such activities as the Alumni Breakfast, Depression Screening, and College Day.

The yearbook staff, after much debate, chose the theme "Up Close and Personal" for this year's book. The staff worked diligently throughout the year to piece together a book that would reflect the many precious LC memories of the year.

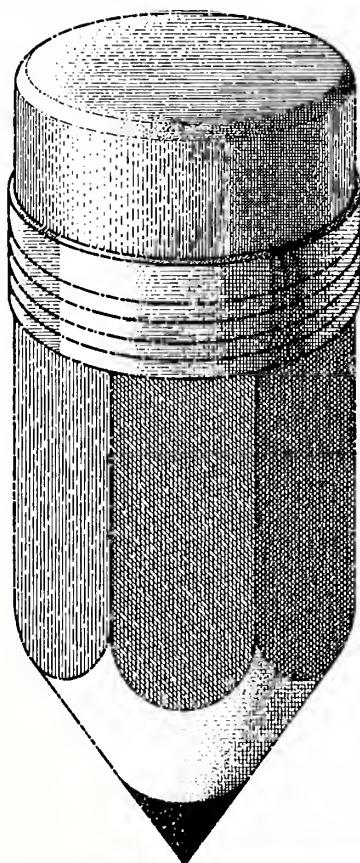

The staff acted as researchers, gathering information, photographers, capturing memories on film, and designers, making layout decisions and visualizing the book taking shape. This is a hard-working group!

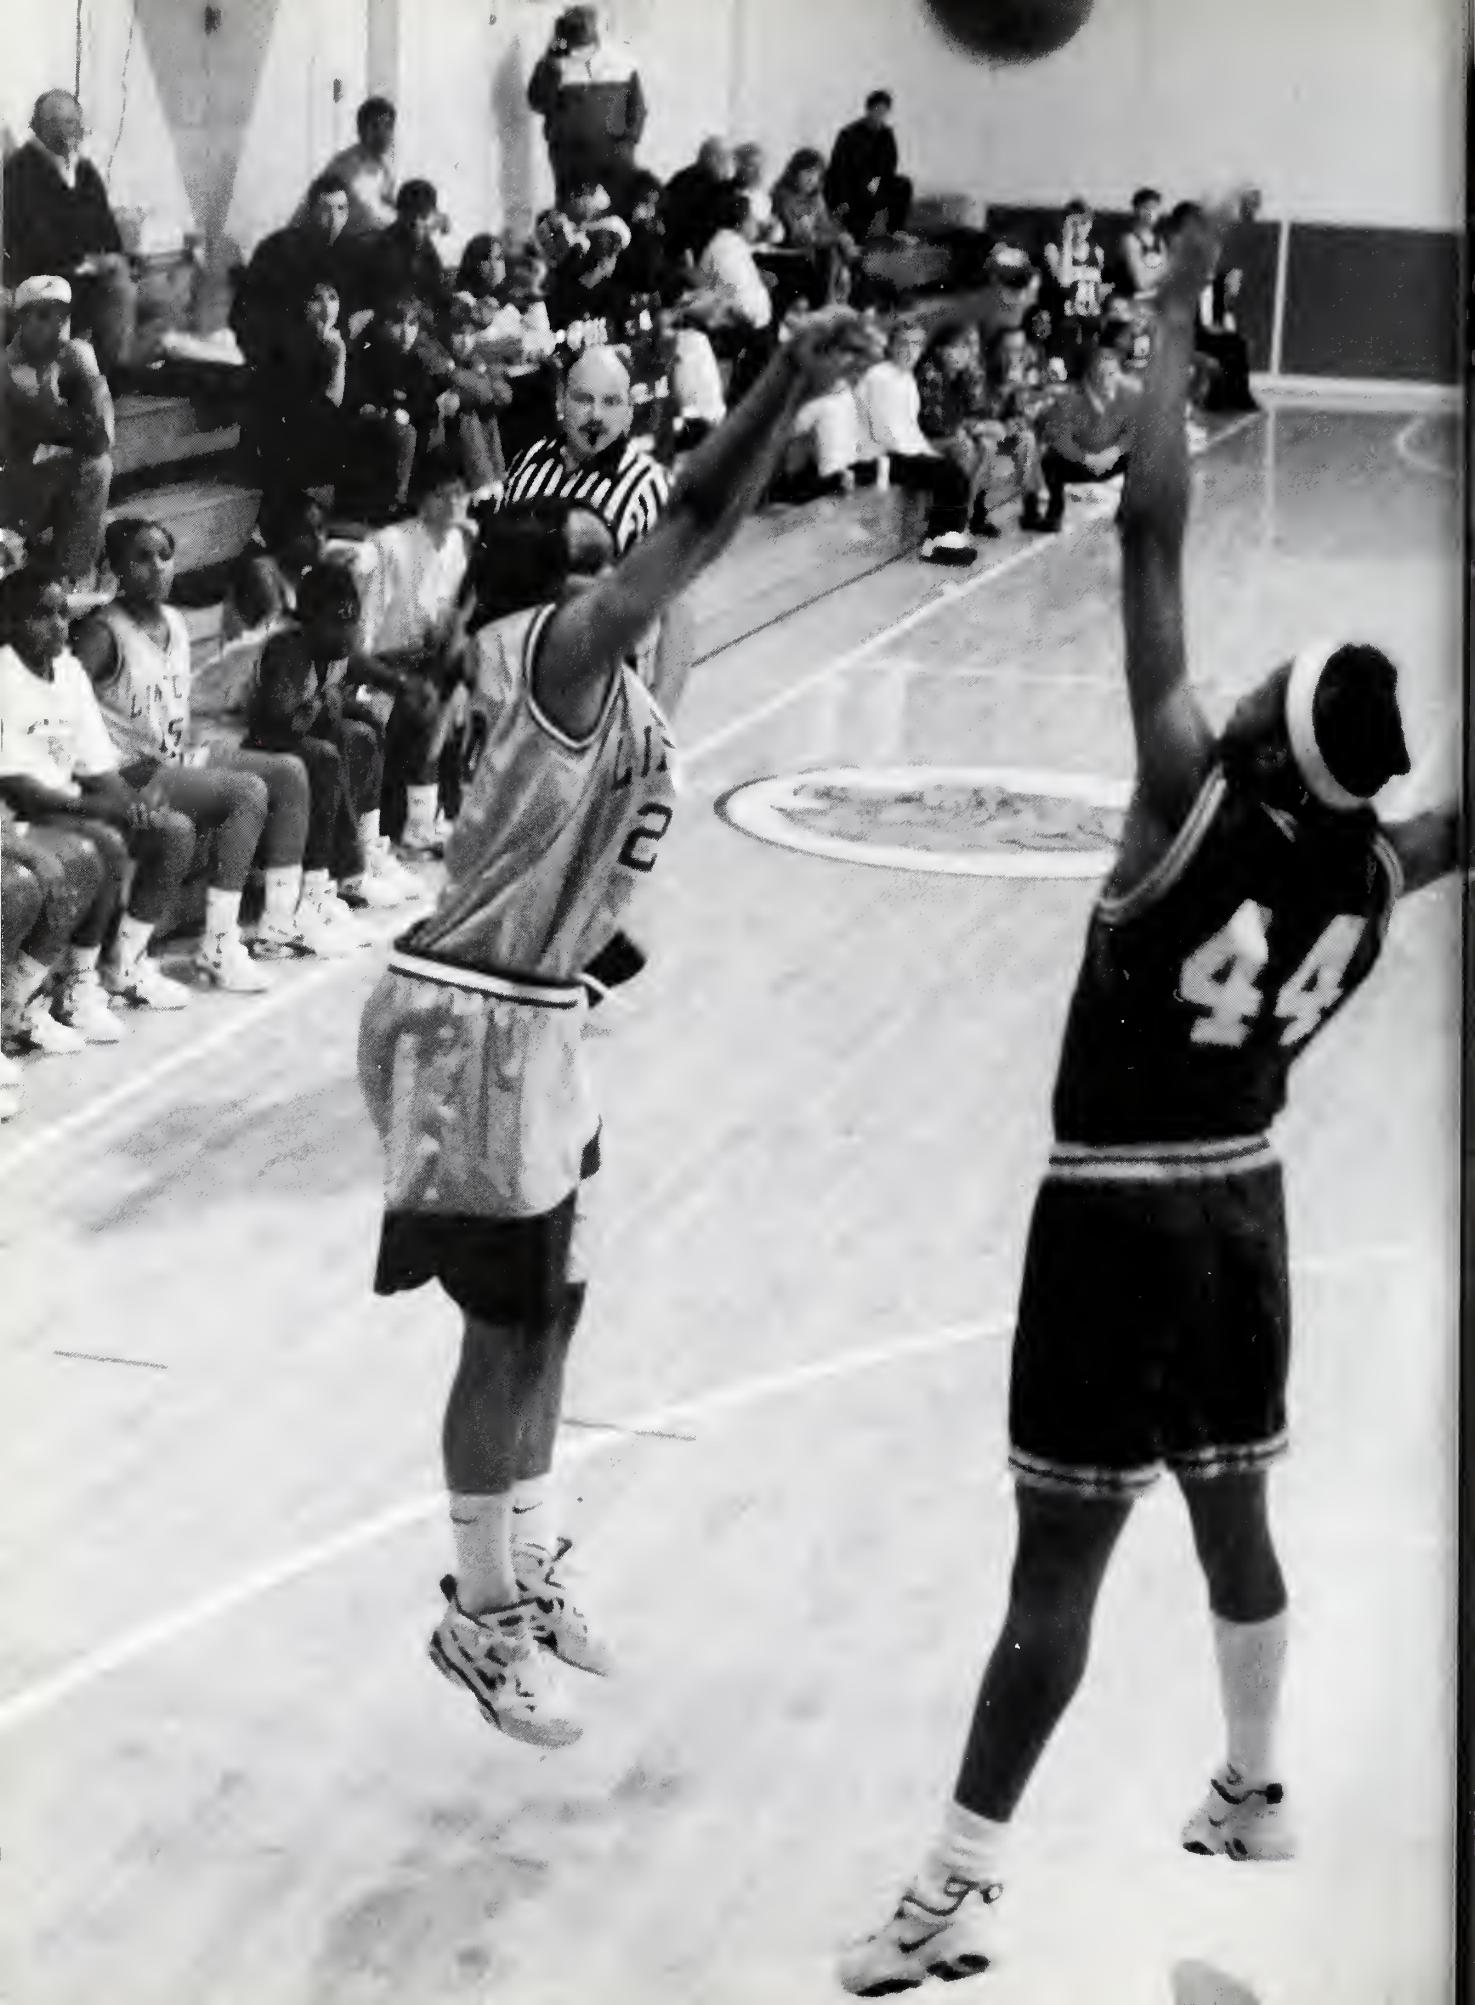

Under the advisement of Cindy Greene, the following individuals served as staff members: Rachele Abernathy (Editor), Stephanie Slemer, Jaimee Vantucci, and Carrie Berglin. "Hats off" to the staff for their hard work and dedication!

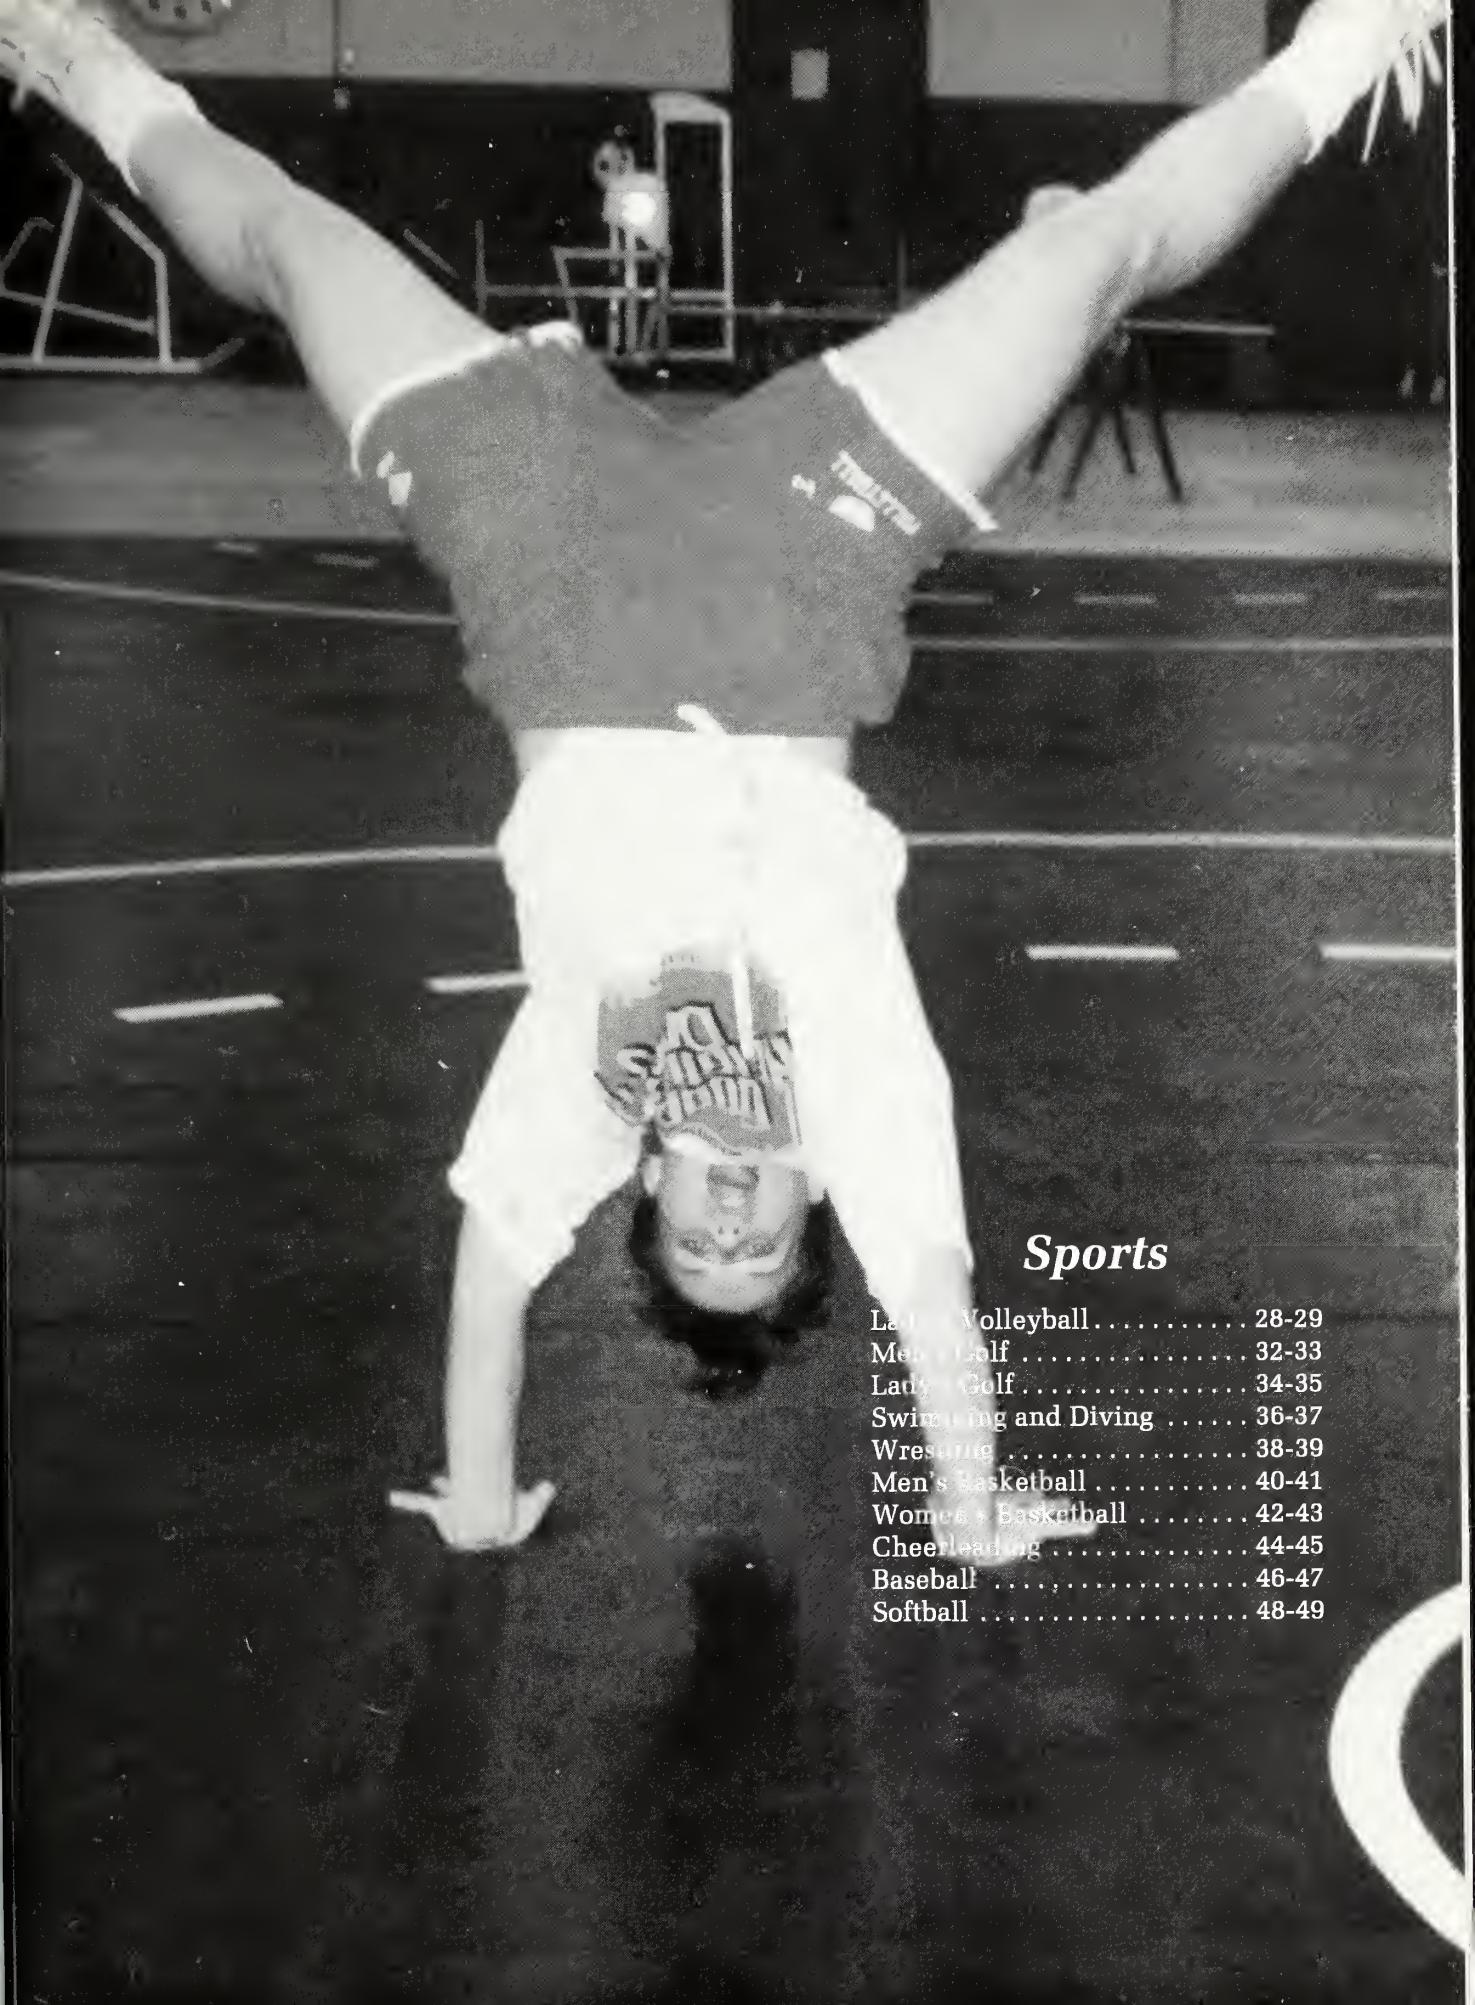

Staff members are hard at work designing pages.

The Lady Lynx, Volleyball Team, headed by Lynn Flach, ended the season with a 28-20 record. Due to hard work and dedication, the Lady Lynx won many close games, and even surprised a few teams.

The team placed 2nd in the Carl Sandburg Tourney, with Andrea Durkin named MVP of the tourney, and Rachel York and Jenny White named to the all-tourney team. Sharon Bresnahan was named to the all-tourney team for the John Logan Tournament.

The Lady Lynx ended the regular season play with a great win over Kishwaukee. It took Lincoln five games to win with the score of the final game, 21-19. Great job, ladies!

Ladies' Golf

The Lady Lynx Golf Team celebrated a fantastic year on the course. The team takes pride in the fact that LC is the only junior college in Illinois with a women's golf program. Although all competition is against four year schools, the Lady Lynx are a competitive bunch!

Team accomplishments of the year include 1st place at the Eureka Invitational, 4th place at the Knox College Invitational, 7th place at the Franklin College Invitational, and 7th place at the Tri-State Invitational.

There were many memorable individual accomplishments of the year as well. Casey Williams was a medalist at the Eureka invitational, earned 4th place at the Franklin College Invitational, and 3rd place at the Tri-State Invitational. Jennifer Clinton earned 5th place at the Knox College Invitational and 4th place at the Eureka College Invitational. Debbie Lamb successfully earned a 4th place tie at the Eureka College Invitational.

Swimming and Diving

L. to R.: Bottom Row - Keith Scorza (Asst. Coach), Jessica Kashlan, Cyndee Adkins, Jennifer Fuqua, Molly McConnel, Marie Nastasowski, Karen Yehling, and Dan Hemenway (Coach). Middle Row - Shilo Rogers (Asst. Coach), Erik Mikkelsen, Heather Dellinger, Dave Meadors, Jeff Grubaugh, and Jason Minner. Top Row - Ryan Matheny, Anthony Garzolini, Joe Wilson, Matt Cooper, Brian Christensen, Kevin Robb, and (not pictured) Jeanne Hayley.

This year's Lynx squad was full of pleasant surprises. Both the Men's and Women's teams performed well beyond expectations. It was truly a great season, full of outstanding highlights.

The Women's team finished the season with a dual meet record of 4-3, while the men finished with a record of 5-2.

In invitationals the Lynx were equally impressive. At Illinois Wesleyan the women finished 4th, with first place finishes recorded by Captain, Molly McConnell (100 Fly) and Karen Yehling (500 Free). The men were led to a 5th place finish by Captain, Jason Minner. Jason placed 1st on both the 1-meter and 3-meter boards, breaking his own record.

After a tough, but fun, ten day training session in Orlando, Florida, the Lynx returned to competition at the Illinois Collegiate Invitational. The Lynx were competing against 10 NCAA Division III schools and 3 Junior Colleges. Both the men and the women managed 5th place finishes, and were the highest placing Junior College at the meet.

The last invitational before regionals was held at Eureka College. The meet was attended by Division II schools, as well as Division III schools. However, the Lynx were not intimidated, as the women's team brought home a first place trophy. This was even more exciting, as it was the first time a Women's team from Lincoln placed 1st in a meet.

At the Regional Meet, both teams finished second, but individually, the team shined. The men won 13 of 20 events, and Matt Cooper and Jason Minner combined to set three Regional Records. Molly McConnell led the way for the women, winning all three of her events, setting a regional Record, and being named Swimmer of the Meet.

This year's National Meet was held at the International Swimming Hall of Fame in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Captains for the Men and Women led the way. Jason Minner was crowned National Champion on both boards and set two National Records. Kevin Robb, Jeff Grubaugh, Brian Christensen, Matt Cooper, and Jason Minner achieved All-American Honors. The Men's Team finished 5th overall, as the highest placing team from Illinois.

The Women's Team was led by Molly McConnell, who achieved All-American Honors in the 200 Fly. Molly also helped set seven team records. The women set a total of 13 team records and finished 4th. Way to go, Lynx swimmers!

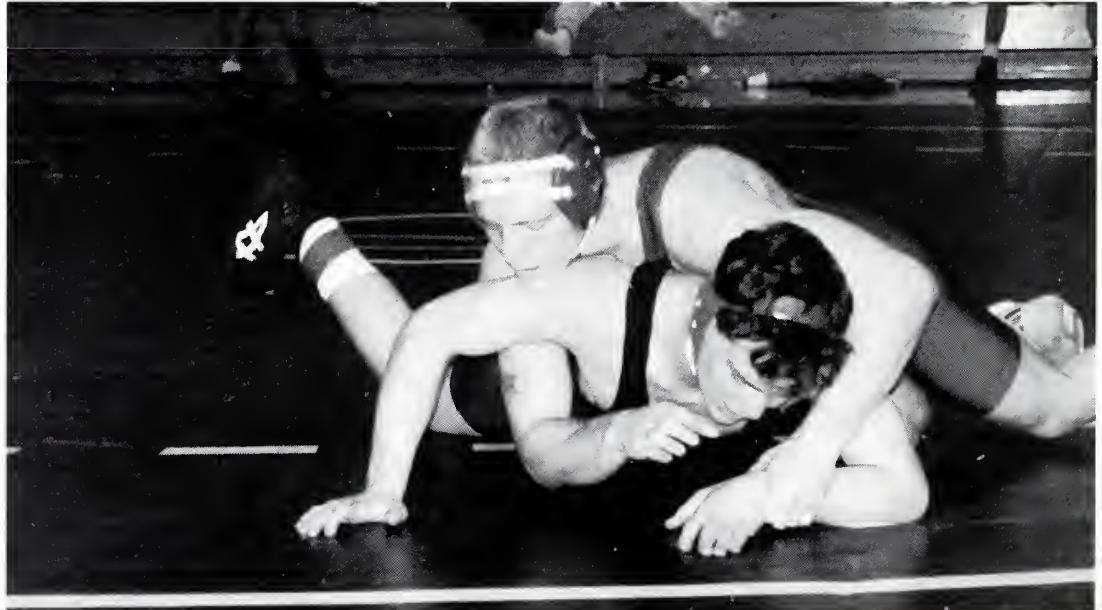

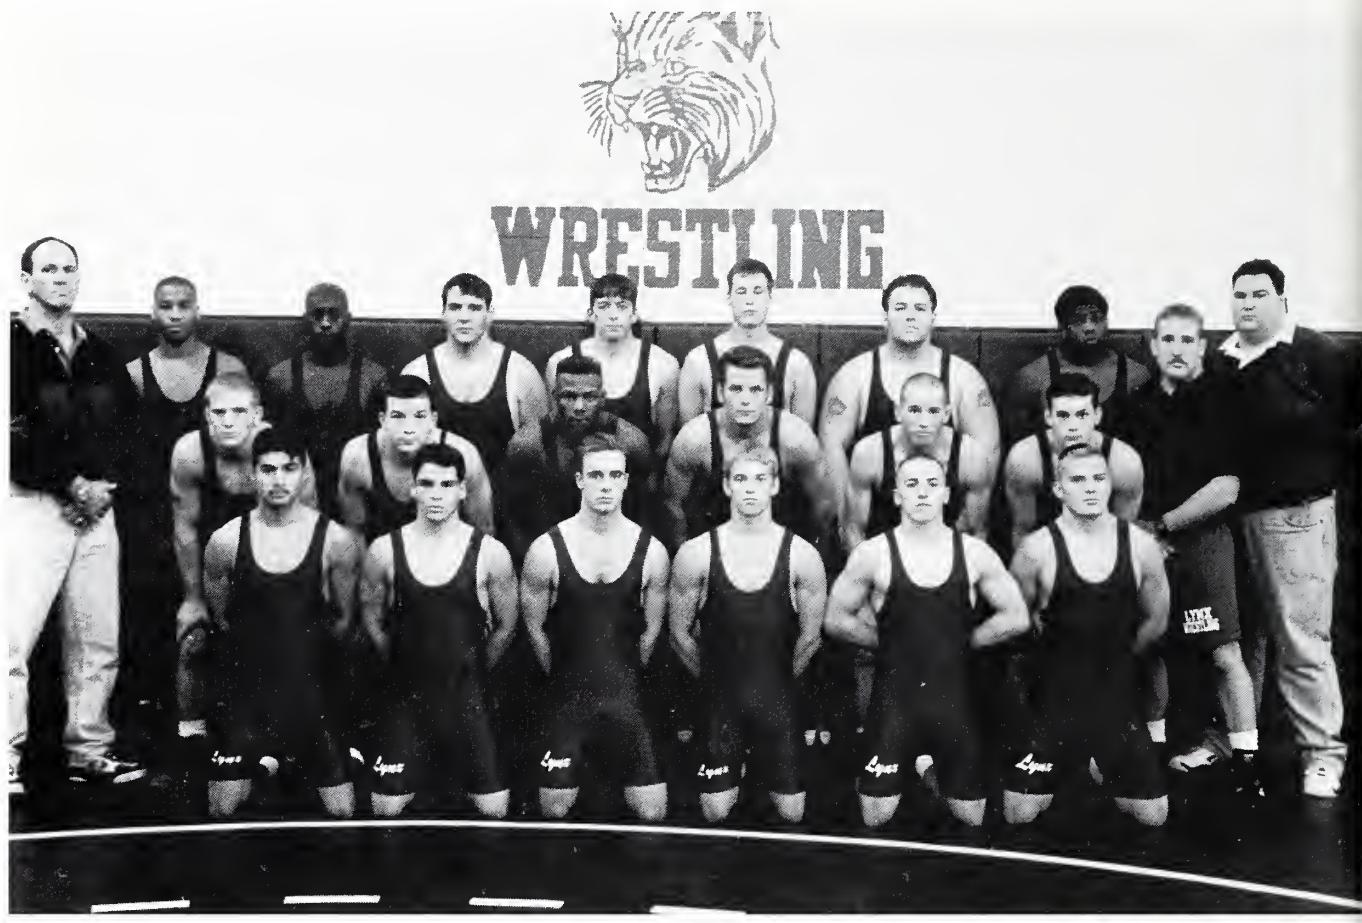

Kevin Robb and Ryan Matheny synchronizing their efforts.

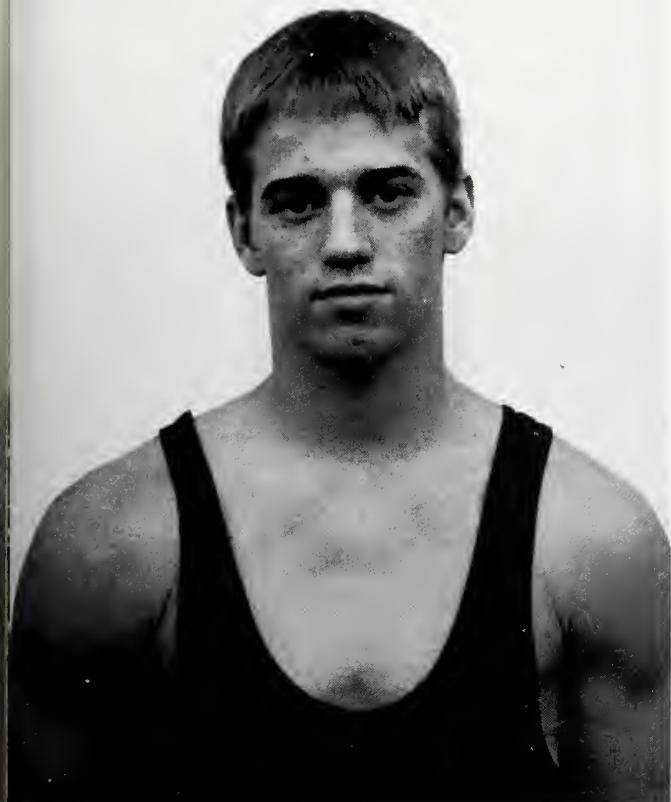

Karen Yehling, Jessica Kashlan, Molly McConnell, and Marie Nastasowski celebrate after being named All-American in the 400 Free Relay.

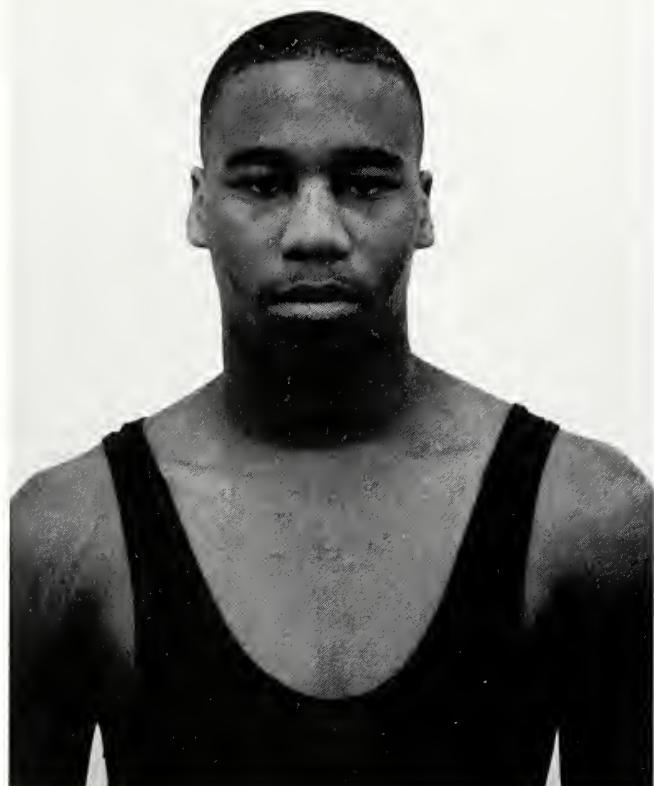

Wrestling

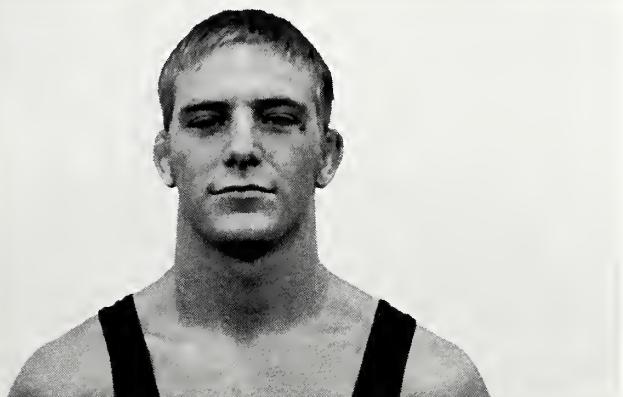

All-American, Rob Serio against Labette College of Kansas.

Chad Eimer - National Champion, 126 lbs.

Elijah Roberts - National Champion, 142 lbs.

Rob Serio - 5th place at National Tournament, 150 lbs.

Titus Taylor - National Runner-up, 158 lbs.

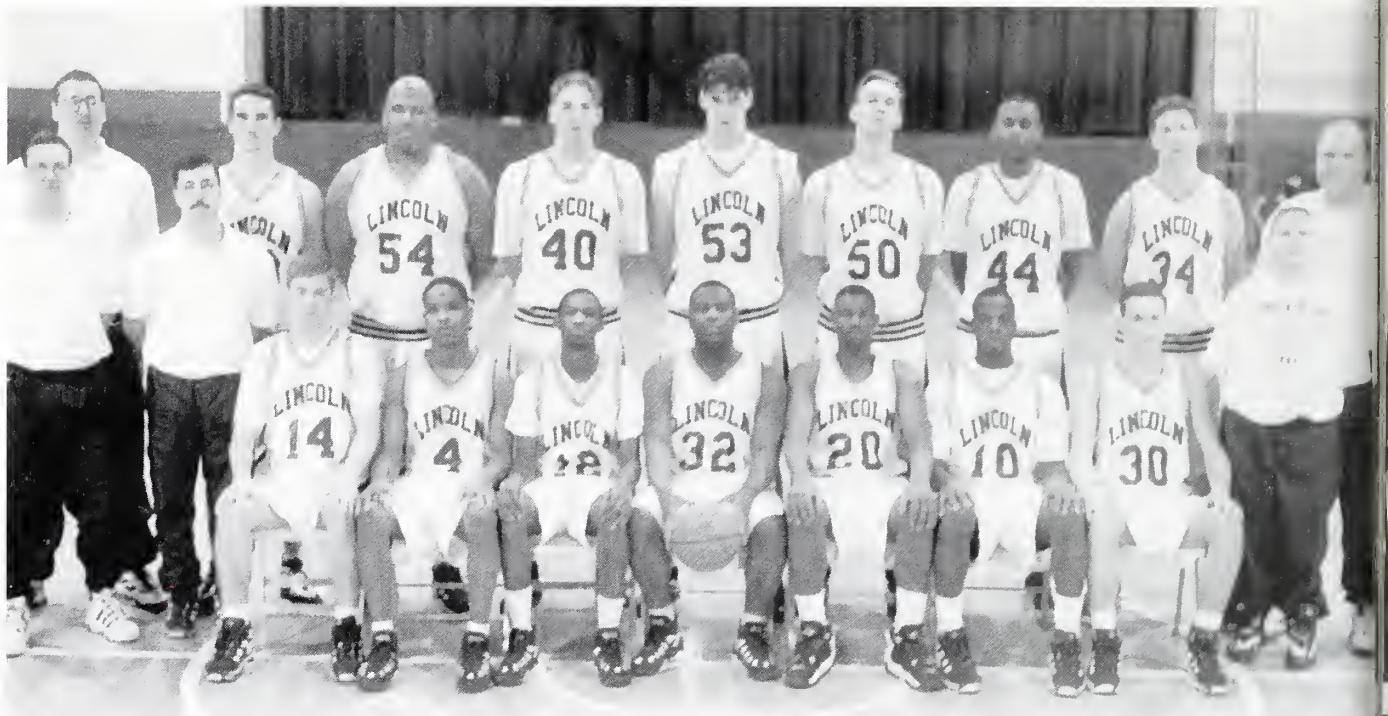

The Lynx wrestlers finished up another successful season in '95-'96. The team compiled a 13-4 dual meet record and won 2 tournaments, the Colby Tournament of Champions and the Regional Tournament.

Coach Klemm's squad turned in a fine performance at the National Tournament, resulting in 4 All-Americans, 2 National Champions, 1 runner-up, and 1 5th placer. This outstanding performance by the Lynx produced a 3rd place team finish. Nice job, men!

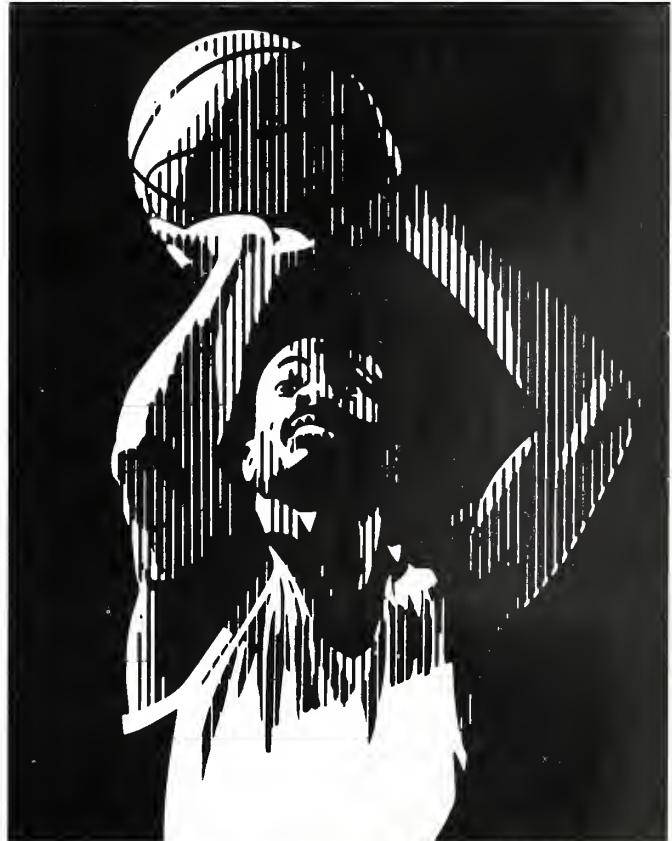

Men's Basketball

The men's basketball team, headed by Mike Riley, worked tremendously hard this season. They coordinated their efforts on the court and operated efficiently as a team.

The team ended their season with a record of 8-23. Mike Taylor led the team in scoring, with an average of 16 ppg. Mike was also named to the All-Conference Team - Collegiate Conference of Central Illinois.

Head coach Mike Riley was assisted by Randy Unger and Tony Thomas. Shawn Parsons acted as manager of the team, and Bull Boy was Mitch Riley.

Lady Lynx Team

The Lady Lynx concluded a fabulous season after reaching many of their goals and falling just short of some. Their 24-9 record included some heartbreak- ing losses, along with several astonishing upsets and a conference title. The most significant accomplishment of the team, according to Coach Vaughan, was that of respect — respect for one another and the respect that they gained from those who came to watch them perform this year. Coach Vaughan adds, "This group definately proved me wrong this year by winning so many games, but it was exciting to watch them come together as a team and display their confidence on the court. It was one of the funnest groups I've ever coached. They did what we asked them to do all season and worked hard while doing it. I give the four sophomores, Shalauna McMillan, Carrie McClallen, Terri Simmons, and Tracy Smith, a lot of the credit because their leadership was irreplaceable. They helped mold the freshman group into a cohesive unit and taught them what it takes to be a Top-20 program. They will certainly be missed next year!"

Cheerleading

Head Coach #2 - Tony Thomas (3rd Year)

Assistant Coach #19 - John Stoltzenburg

The Lynx baseball team ended the season with a record of 10-38. Coach Tony Thomas states, "We had a great team this year. They worked hard on and off the field, which made them twice as enjoyable to coach!"

Individual accomplishments of the year include the following: MVP hitter, Pat Morici with an average of .378, ERA leader, Pat Parrish at 3.28, and most wins, Jimmy Alvarez with 3. Team captains for the season were Travis Bradley and Pat Morici.

Head Coach Tony Thomas and Assistant Coach John Stoltzenburg.

Softball

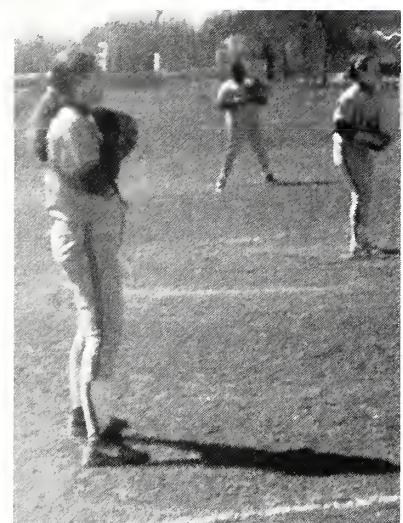

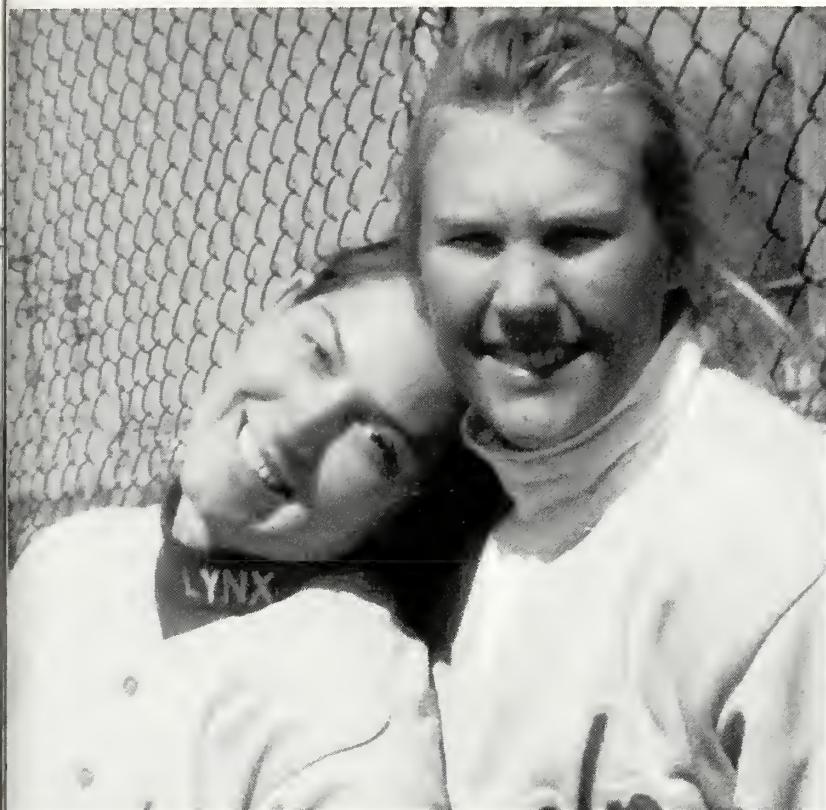

The Lady Lynx softball team, newly headed by Coach Clint Wilson and assisted by Jim Wright, had a memorable '95-'96 season. Coach Wilson states, "We had a very determined group of girls. They struggled defensively and with pitching, but were a tremendous group of hitters."

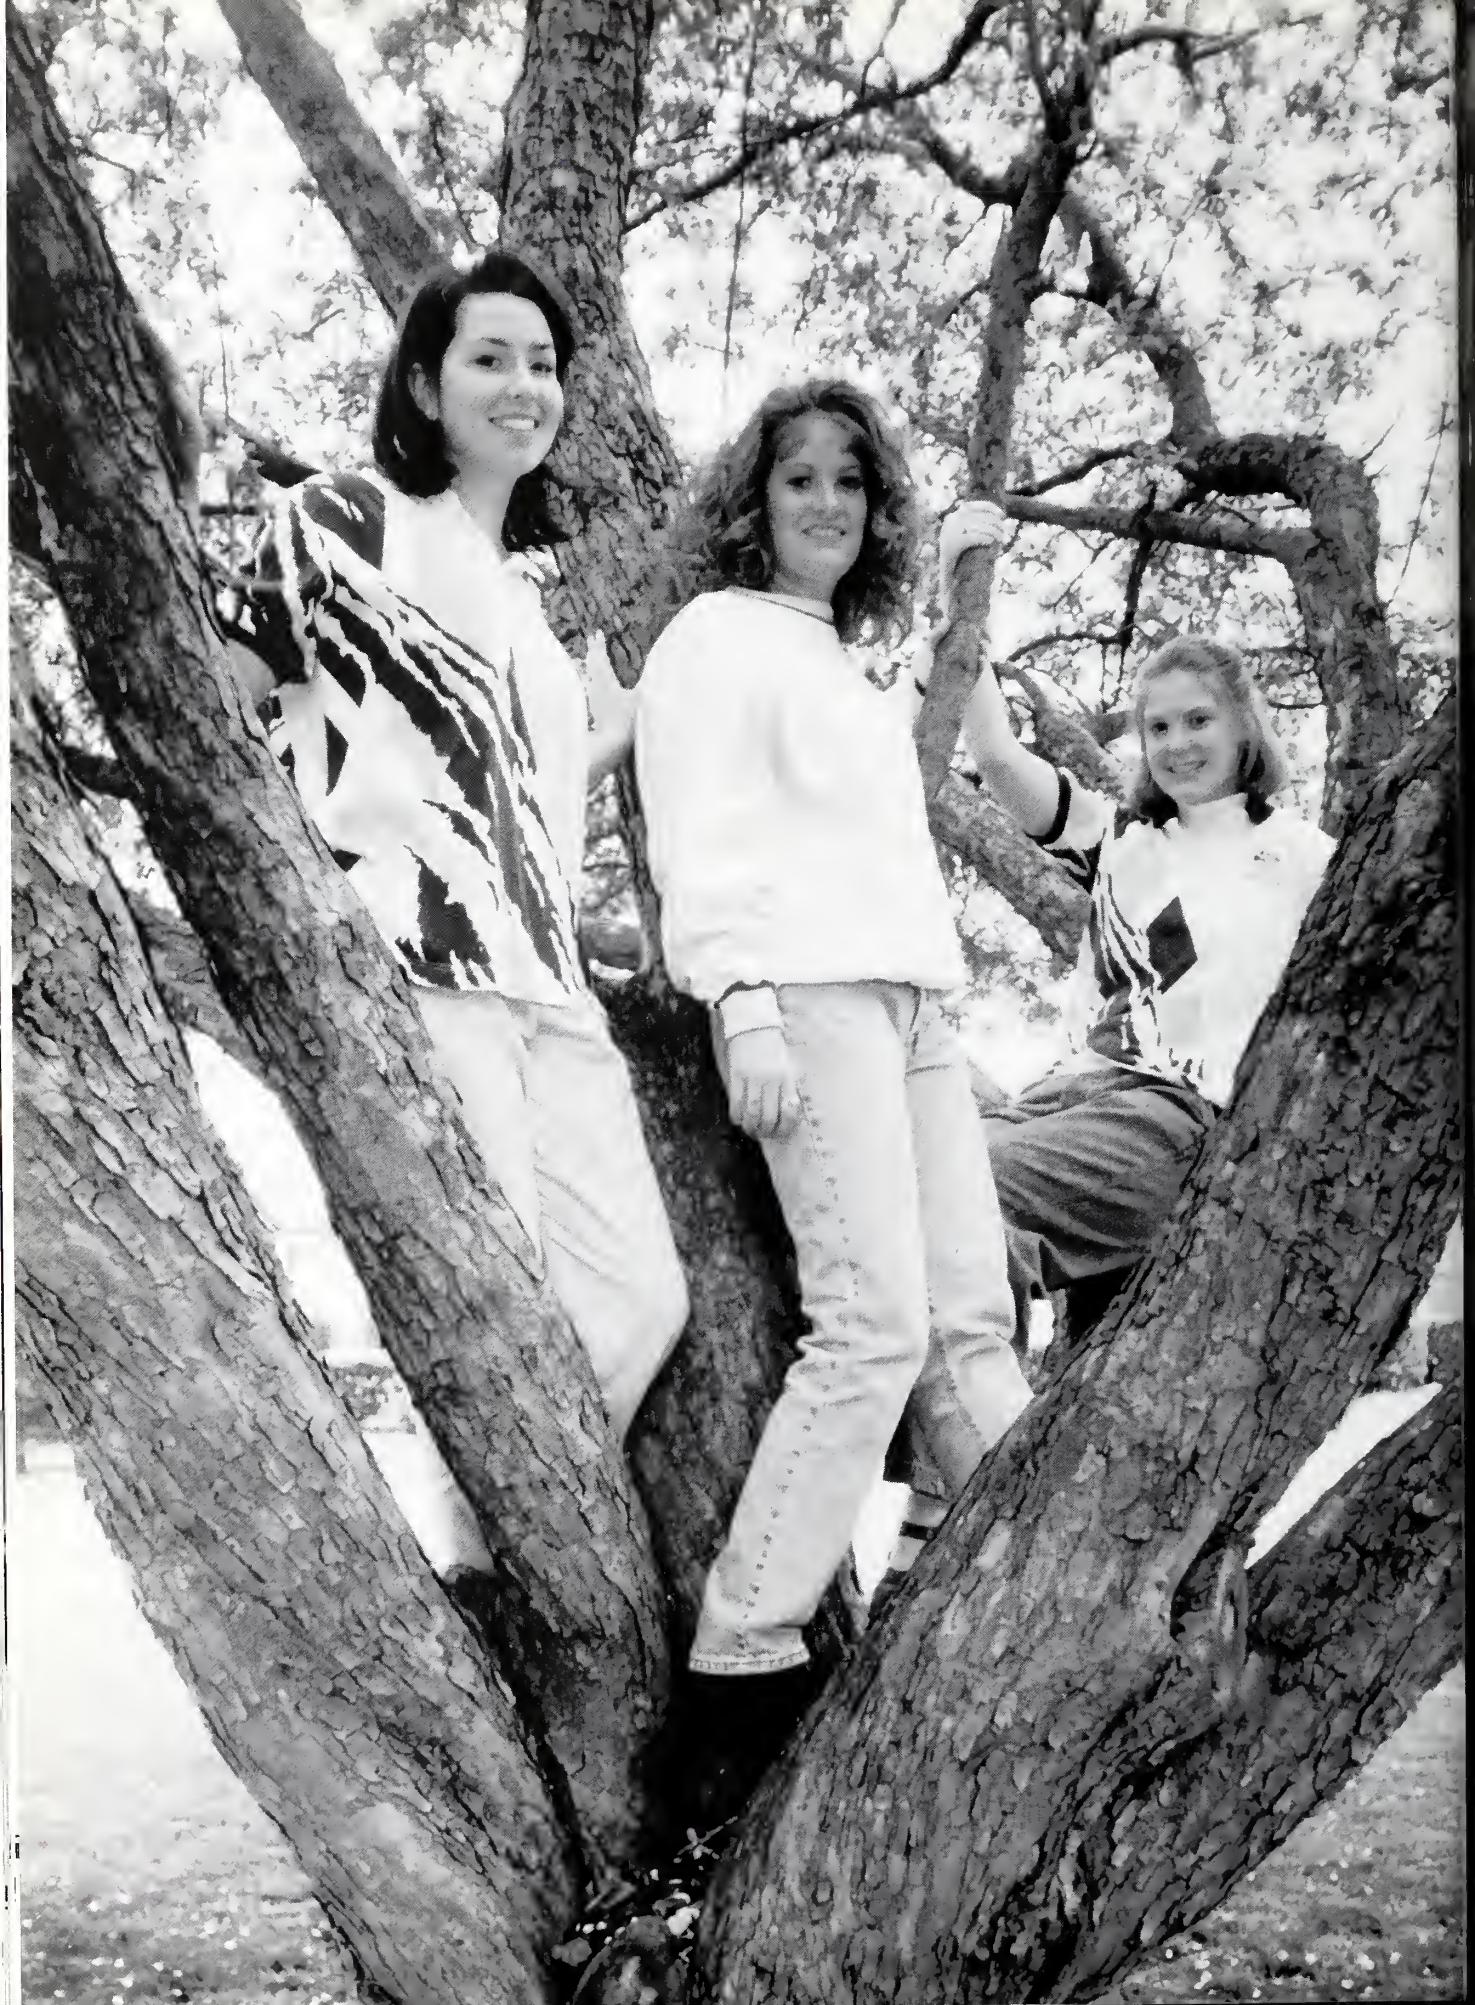

There were many successful individual accomplishments of the year. Jamie Stalions, pitcher, was voted MVP of the season with a .563 batting average. The Golden Glove award went to Nicole Templin, who played 1st base and acted as catcher. Nicole did an excellent job, with a batting average of .418. Margaret Buehler achieved the title of Batting Champion, with an average of .545. Terri Simmons helped the team greatly by hitting 2 home runs, 1 triple, and six doubles, and ending with a batting average of .461.

Team captains for the year were Jamie Stalions and Beth Rieger. A great season, ladies!

In Memoriam

Veryl Walter

Ms. Walter was an intellect and a world traveler, but more importantly, she was good and kind.

Borrowing from Margaret Drabble:

"It's puzzling that so many dreadful things happened in so short a space of time. Why Veryl? Veryl had never offended anybody in her life, unless there were some cynics who found her universal goodwill offensive. Veryl represented everything that was generous, innocent, unsuspicious, trusting. She was living proof of the possibility of good nature. There wasn't even any point in testing her good nature, if that was God's plan, for there was no possibility of her failing the test."

Ms. Walter's absence is palpable as any presence.

In Memoriam

Tara Engle

In loving memory of Tara Engle, whose cheerful, outgoing personality will always be embedded in the memory of all those whose lives she touched. We, her friends and classmates, are most grateful to have had Tara in our lives. We will always remember her bright, energetic spirit and all the joy that she brought to us.

MINIMAG . . .

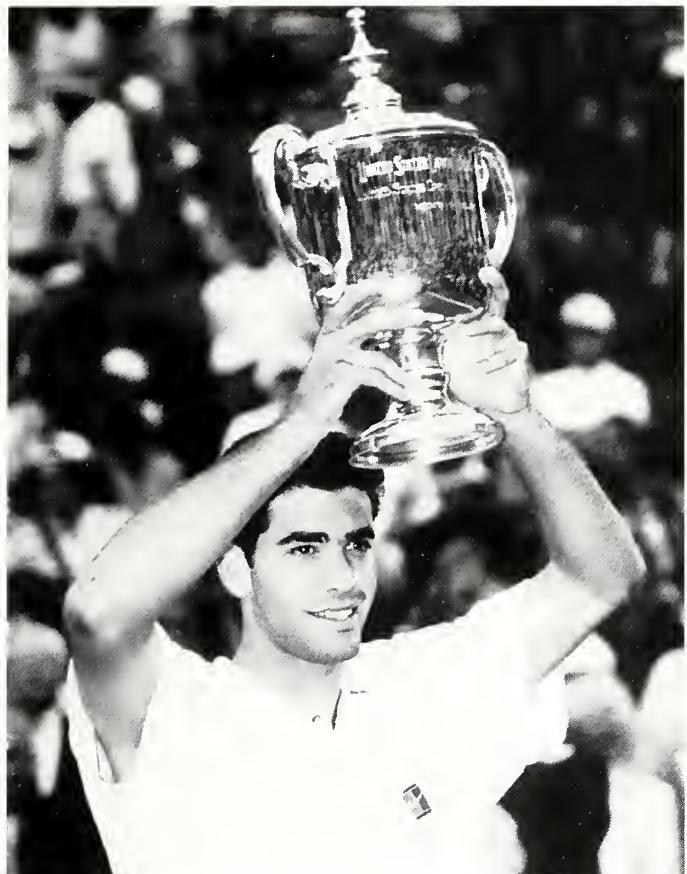

TOP LEFT: The Atlantic region hurricane season this year was active that it has produced the most named storms since the National Hurricane Center started assigning names in 1953.

BOTTOM LEFT: The civil war in the former Yugoslavia continued as the 1995-96 school year began. For years after the wars of Yugoslavia began, there was still no peace among the Croats and the Serbs and the Muslims. More than a million people have lost their homes, more than 200,000 have been killed and tens of thousands have become refugees.

BOTTOM RIGHT: The murder trial of O.J. Simpson ended. Not guilty. It took the jury less than four hours to reach a verdict in the sensational trial that lasted eight months. The jury of 10 women and men found that Simpson did not kill his former wife, Nicole Brown Simpson, and her friend, Ronald Goldman in June, 1994.

Top Left: There have been so many titles, so many magic moments in the marvelous tennis career of Steffi Graf. There was the Grand Slam sweep in 1988, when she stamped herself as one of the best players in the world. But none of the triumphs matched the emotional victory over Monica Seles in the U.S. Open finals. "This is the biggest win that I have ever achieved," said Graf, who owns 18 Grand Slam titles.

Top Right: Pete Sampras outlasted Andre Agassi and captured a third U.S. Open title and gain in the No. 1 ranking. Sampras' aggressive style rocked Agassi with 24 aces to win the prestigious title. Two months earlier Sampras won his third straight Wimbledon. Sampras got to the finals by defeating Jim Courier; Agassi advanced by downing Boris Becker.

Bottom Left: Baltimore Orioles shortstop, Cal Ripken marched into the record books when he broke Lou Gehrig's record and played in 2,131 consecutive baseball games. Gehrig had held the record since 1939. Ripken broke the record on September 6, and went on to finish the season having played in 2,153 consecutive games — the last 70 of them without an error.

THE YEAR'S HAPPENINGS . . .

Top Left: President Bill Clinton prepared for a new political battle: the 1996 presidential election. Early in the election process, the 49-year-old Democratic President faced nearly a dozen Republicans looking to be the nominee to run against him. Pres. Clinton, however, had other concerns — taxes, medicare reform, and a Republican-ruled Congress to contend with.

Bottom Right: The much-traveled Pope John Paul II returned to the U.S. for his fourth papal trip. The 75-year-old Pope showed no signs of slowing down, but spoke of leading the Roman Catholic Church into Christianity's third millennium.

TOP LEFT: Bill Gates made computer headlines when he introduced Windows 95, the long-awaited upgrade to the Windows computer software program. Gates, the 39-year-old chairman of Microsoft Corp., was crowned the richest man in the U.S., with a net worth of about $14.8 billion.

TOP RIGHT: Dallas Cowboys' Emmit Smith goes for a long gain as the Cowboys went on to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 27-17 to win Super Bowl XXX.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Timothy McVeigh is a well-guarded prisoner. He and Terry Nichols are charged with 11 counts in the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City. The explosion on April 19, 1995 killed 169 people and injured more than 500.

TOP LEFT: The David Matthews Band may have come out of nowhere, but the band is here to stay. The group's second album, "Under the Table and Dreaming", is a major label success. It rocketed up the charts even without a hit single.

TOP RIGHT: Pearl Jam's best-selling album, "Vitalogy", made one of the biggest debuts of the year. It sold nearly 900,000 copies, which nearly topped the group's own record set in 1993 when "Vs." sold 950,000 copies its first week. Meanwhile, the group, with Eddie Vedder as its leader, continued its fight with Ticketmaster, claiming the ticket firm charges fans excessive service charges.

TOP LEFT: It was nearly three decades ago, after a series of race riots in Los Angeles, Newark and Detroit, that a commitment began to use race-based programs to improve the rights of blacks. It was called "affirmative action". But in 1995-96, affirmative action plans began to get weaker. The Supreme Court issued decisions making it harder to justify giving minorities and women preferences in the awarding of federal contracts.

BOTTOM LEFT: Soul Asylum is basking in its platinum-level success. As one critic said: "When they hit the stage during their concert tour, they rip through a blistering string of music that shows the band's early punk roots."

BOTTOM RIGHT: Garth Brooks was the first country artist to sell like a pop star in the early 1990's. Today, Garth Brooks is part of the old guard, averaging sales of about 10 million per album.
